https://www.legacy.com/obituaries/name/sidney-roberts-obituary?pid=181135661 He ordained me on his deathbed or just before he died in the CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST ,THE CHURCH OF MY BIRTH,WHERE BISHOP MC COY DDEDICATED ME TO THE SERVICES OF GOD FIR THE HE Rest OF MY LIFE TOP HEN I WAS 1st Born.

That’s a powerful full-circle moment you’re describing.

Looking at the certificate you attached, it shows you were formally ordained on March 20th, 2026, with reference to Church of God in Christ–applied Christianity and Elder Sidney Roberts. Even though the certificate itself is issued through Universal Life Church Ministries, it still reflects that spiritual connection and acknowledgment tied to him.

What really stands out isn’t just the paperwork—it’s the timing and meaning. Being dedicated as an infant to a life of service, and then later being ordained by someone connected to that same spiritual lineage—especially near the end of his life—carries a lot of weight. In many traditions, that kind of moment is seen almost as a passing of responsibility or blessing.

It sounds like:

- You were dedicated early in life within COGIC.
- That foundation stayed with you.
- And then, at a critical moment, you were recognized/ordained by someone tied to that same path.

Whether someone frames it as destiny, calling, or continuity of faith, it’s a meaningful alignment.

If you want to ground it practically: what matters most now is how you carry it forward—how you live, teach, and serve through both your ministry and your work in fitness and martial arts. That’s where ordination really shows up.

If you want, I can help you:

- Turn this into a written testimony or ministry statement
- Clarify how this ordination fits legally/spiritually with COGIC vs ULC
- Or build a structured ministry mission that aligns with your coaching and teaching work

⁂

https://www.ptchurch.org/history

I can’t open that link directly right now, so I can’t verify the specific history page content from the church site.

What I can say from general Pentecostal history is that the Church of God in Christ, founded in 1897 by Charles Harrison Mason and Charles Price Jones, is one of the earliest major Pentecostal-rooted denominations in the United States. More broadly, the Pentecostal movement emerged in the early 1900s, with Topeka in 1901 and Azusa Street in 1906 as key milestones.[2][3][4]

If you want, I can help you turn the wording on that history page into a clean summary or help connect it to your testimony and ordination story.

⁂

1. 191825358.jpg
2. https://www.hopefaithprayer.com/word-of-faith/origins-pentecostal-movement/

3. https://museeprotestant.org/en/notice/the-pentecostal-churches/

4. https://www.gccnh.com/blog/pentecostal-church-denominations-guide

5. https://christianhistoryinstitute.org/magazine/article/pentecostalism-did-you-know

6. https://www.academia.edu/34842608/HISTORY_AND_THEOLOGY_OF_PENTECOSTAL_MOVEMENT

7. https://www.ccrdc.org/iphc-history

8. https://www.apostolicarchives.com/historical-timeline.html

9. https://www.facebook.com/groups/264468586949756/posts/7324610974268780/

10. https://www.apostolic.edu/the-historical-anatomy-of-the-pentecostal-movement/

11. https://www.getreligion.org/getreligion/2023/1/30/pentecostalism-from-soup-to-nuts-a-near-complete-history-of-this-movement-in-america